WORLD ATHLETICS DAY

Being healthy must be a part of our overall lifestyle. Living a healthy lifestyle not only prevents chronic diseases but also reduces the risk of long-term illness. It helps us to feel good about ourselves and improve our self-image and self-esteem. Additionally, good health is also central to human happiness.

There is a saying that a healthy body has a healthy mind To keep our body healthy, only eating healthy is not enough. Our body needs some more healthy habits like exercising and hygiene.

To enhance healthy habits in ourselves, we must participate in various sports activities throughout the year. Athletics is one of those healthy habits that profoundly impact individuals, schools, and communities.

Athletics creates a bridge among people who otherwise might not interact together. That is why many schools are paying attention to athletics to build healthy communities and nations. Every year on May 7th, We celebrate World Athletics Day

RABINDRA JAYANTI

According to the Bengali calender, Rabindranath Tagore Jayanti is celebrated on 25th day of Boisakh and as per the English calender, it is being celebrated on 7th May 2022. This year it is 161st birth anniversary of Rabindranath Tagore. Rabindranath Tagore was born on 7th May 1861 in Jorasanko Thakurbai in Kolkata. Rabindranath Tagore was born to mother Sarada Devi and Father Debendranath Tagore and he belonged to a affluent brahmin family. He was the youngest one in his family and had a great desire to learn new things. He was respectfully called as Gurudev and Bard of Bengal. He was popular for the contribution he has made in the field of art and literature. He was the first Non-European, who received the Nobel Prize in the year of 1913 for his collection of poetry named 'Gitanjali', which was a big achievement being an Indian.
